Reflection and Discussion

Joshua 1:1-18

Use these questions as discussion starters in a family devotion time, talks over dinner, as items for reflection in your personal devotions, or as journaling points.

1. Who has been a “Moses” mentor to you? What is the most important lesson you learned from that person? Who are you being a “Moses” to today?
2. How do you picture the scene in Joshua 1:1-9? How do you think God spoke to Joshua? How does God speak to you?
3. In verse 7, God commands Joshua to be strong, courageous and faithful to God’s Law—and promises that the result of Joshua’s faithfulness will be “success.” How do you think God defines success? What does this promise really mean?
4. Read the promises God makes to Joshua in 1:3-5 and 1:9. Which one is most meaningful in your life right now?
5. What is your greatest challenge, pressure, or opposition today? What is God calling you to do about it?
6. Have you felt that your life is “on-hold?” Does Joshua’s long preparation encourage you? Why or why not?
7. What is the place of leadership God is calling you to fill right now? In your family? In your work? In the church? In the community? What is the important task that remains unfinished because no one has accepted responsibility for it?
8. I believe that God has prepared me for _____

Holiness

Holiness, holiness is what I long for. Holiness is what I need.
Holiness, holiness is what You want from me.
So take my heart and form it. Take my mind, transform it.
Take my will, conform it to Yours, to Yours, O Lord
